Air Force Clubs Wants to Help You Achieve Your Dreams

For the seventh consecutive year, Air Force club membership is helping members and their families combat the cost of higher education. Six individuals will be selected to receive a combined total of $25,000 in scholarship money in the Air Force Club Membership Scholarship Program.

To enter, just write and submit an essay of 500 words or less on this year's topic (see Rules & Eligibility for details).

The Air Force Club Membership Scholarship Program is just one more valuable benefit of your club membership.

Rules and Eligibility

To enter, provide an essay of 500 words or less on the topic: Air Force Clubs – Help Us Make “Members First.” The essay should focus on club facility, membership programming, food, beverage, entertainment, and customer service. Essays exceeding 500 words (excluding title) will be disqualified. Participants must also provide a single-page summary of their long-term career/life goals and previous accomplishments. The summary may include civic, athletic and academic awards and accomplishments. Both the summary and your essay must be attached to the entry application included in this brochure (photocopied forms are acceptable).

Essays must be typed in 12-point Arial, Times New Roman or equivalent font, single-spaced, with double spacing between paragraphs, and submitted on standard white bond paper with one-inch margins. Submit your entry to your base Services Commander/Division Chief by July 15, 2003. Each base will nominate a maximum of two scholarship essays for national competition. Final scholarship awards for the 2003-2004 school year will be announced by October 1, 2003. All nominees will be notified by mail of scholarship selection or non-selection.

Current Air Force club members and their family members (e.g., spouse, son, daughter, stepson, and stepdaughter) who have been accepted by or are enrolled in an accredited college or university for entry during the fall of 2003 term as a part-time or full-time student are eligible. Grandchildren who are dependents of the club member may also be eligible. Student enrollment status may involve either undergraduate or graduate curriculum. Services commanders/division chiefs, deputy commanders, flight chiefs, club managers, assistant club managers, marketing directors, staffs of MAJCOMs, HQ AFSVA, and HQ USAF/ILV, and family members of these individuals, are not eligible to participate.

For more information, please visit the Air Force Services website at www-p.afsv.af.mil/clubs
